

Understanding the Terms

Use Case, User Story, Requirements

Instructions:

Read the statements below and choose the term that is being described. There is one correct answer per statement – choose the best answer.

Terms:

- A - User Stories
- B - Use Cases
- C - Requirements

Statements:

1. ____ - Uses a system's perspective to describe the need
2. ____ - Most often used in Agile to explain the desired outcome
3. ____ - Shows the interactions between systems and users
4. ____ - These are often elicited, documented, and moved on from
5. ____ - These are talked about and adjusted until the work has begun
6. ____ - Generally created and owned by the full Project Team
7. ____ - Explains the behavior a system needs to produce
8. ____ - Uses a user's perspective to describe the need
9. ____ - Usually has a large scope as it covers all system interactions